

Archie Abrams, Associate Counsel- Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama

Mr. Abrams currently serves as Associate Counsel at Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama. As Associate Counsel, his duties include interpreting federal and state regulations to assess the impact to Blue Cross, contract negotiation and drafting and litigation management. Mr. Abrams has been with Blue Cross since June 2012.

Prior to joining Blue Cross, Mr. Abrams served as Assistant District Attorney for the 24th Circuit of Alabama where he prosecuted felony and misdemeanor cases for a three county district. Additionally, Mr. Abrams represented the state in asset forfeiture cases resulting from criminal acts.

Prior to attending law school, Mr. Abrams worked for seven years as a Management Consultant for Accenture where he advised clients on process improvement.

Mr. Abrams obtained his law degree from The University of Alabama and his undergraduate degree from Auburn University.